

Philippe Castagner

possesses a tenor voice of exceptional quality that he employs with immense taste and musicality.

Philippe Castagner joined the Lindermann Young Artists Program in 2002 and has appeared at the Metropolitan Opera on a regular basis since.

North American operatic engagements include: Beppe (I Pagliacci) at the Metropolitan Opera, Portland Opera and Vancouver Opera; Tamino at Arizona Opera and Vancouver Opera; Acis at the NYCO; and Madman (Wozzeck) and Solo Quartet (The Enchanted Island) with the Metropolitan Opera.

In 2008, Philippe Castagner made his European opera debut as Ferrando at Bilbao (ABAO).

North American concert engagements include: L'Enfant et les Sortilèges; the Messiah, Freddy (My Fair Lady) with the New York Philharmonic; Beethoven Symphony No.9 and Carmen with the Los Angeles Philharmonic; Les Troyens (Hylas) with the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Tanglewood Festival; Messiah and Die Schone Mullerin at Carnegie Hall; and Beethoven Symphony No.9 with the Philadelphia Orchestra.

European concert engagements include: Berlioz Romeo et Juliette with the Academia Santa Caecilia.

Conductors with whom Philippe Castagner has worked include: William Christie; Gustavo Dudamel; Charles Dutoit; Louis Langree; James Levine; Loren Maazel; Nicholas McGegan; and Michael Tilson Thomas.

Recent engagements include: Madman (Wozzeck) at the Metropolitan Opera and Danilo (The Merry Widow) with Lyric Opera Dublin.

Philippe Castagner will spend season 2016/17 at the JK Tyla Theater in Pilsen, where he will perform the roles of Lensky, the Prince (Rusalka) and Giasone.

Die Schone Mullerin

He started Das Wandern...casually, everything about the voice – pitch, timbre, volume, projections – exactly right...His exemplary German diction, the slight, desired edge on a gorgeously lyrical voice, and his unerring sense of the space combined for consistent excellence in communication.

San Francisco Classical Voice

Candleway / Broad Street / Sutton Valence / Kent / ME17 3AJ
telephone (44) (0) 1622 840 038/ email:staffordlaw@btinternet.com
<http://www.stafford-law.com>